

St. Patrick Coloring Contest 2008

35 years! Bigger and better than ever...
First year for International entries!

Greetings!

Thanks to the generosity of King Southern Bank, and in commemoration of 35 years of the Ancient Order of Hibernians St. Patrick's Parade and Coloring Contest, this year's Coloring Contest was the best yet.

- ❖ We had entries (in a separate division) from three schools in Co. Galway, Ireland...
- ❖ We had entries from each of the area's Catholic schools...
- ❖ We had entries from the kids of folks who went online, went to a King Bank, or read about the Contest in The Record...
- ❖ We had three winners per grade this year (usually we just have one)... and we doubled the Grand Prize (from a $50 Savings Bond to a $100 Savings Bond)

Parents of winners, here's what you need to know:

Your child is a great colorer... there were about 4,000 entries and each is carefully considered...

All winners will get their colored entry sheet back in a frame and will get a Coloring Contest Winner T-shirt.

All winners are invited to join the Hibernians for the St. Patrick's Parade on March 15, 2008. Winners and their families can ride in one of the city's Toonerville Trolleys or march along behind it (the trolley has limited space. Let us know if you have any special requirements and need to ride in the trolley). PLEASE MEET UP AT THE CORNER of Baxter and Broadway (Phoenix Hill's front lot) at 2:30 on Sat, March 15. Look for KEVIN POWERS (big guy with red-hair and a beard and AOH sash) and other Coloring Contest Winners.

One winner from each grade and the grand prize-winner will receive their art and t-shirt at St. Louis Bertrand at Noon on Saturday, March 15. Those families will be told if they should arrive by 11:00 at the old St. Louis Bertrand School (1104 South Sixth St... south of the corner of 6th and St. Catherine Streets).

KEVIN POWERS is the Hibernian in charge of the coloring contest unit at the parade (and at Mass)... see him if you have any questions: 802-6205 (cell)

Shaun McKiernan, AOH Pres. – 298-8225 (cell) OH, you might want to wear GREEN!
